Together, we have the power to heal the world.

Join Hadassah Minneapolis St. Paul for a wonderful program filled with song and joy. Shana Eisenberg, Ariella Rahma Forstein, and Flip Frisch are all daughters of active Hadassah life members, and are delighted to bring their talents to us. All have a great deal of singing and performing experience. In addition, our chapter's 2023 executive board will be installed as we begin another great year!

Shana Eisenberg, daughter of Marsha Eisenberg, began song leading as a teenager at Olin-Sang-Ruby Union Institute and continues today with a variety of different groups in the Twin Cities metro area: Bet Shalom Religious School, Shir Tikvah Tot Shabbat and Jewish Academy of Moral Imagination, Sabes JCC Early Childhood Center, and JFCS Caring Connections. She also works professionally as an actor. Recent productions include Stuart Little at Stages Theatre Company, Once with Daleko Arts, The Dixie Swim Club at Old Log Theatre, and Footloose at Artistry.

Ariella Rahma Forstein, daughter of Merrie Forstein, is a songstress, using music for prayer as a cantorial soloist, for healing as a sound healer, and as a form of soul expression. She has been a vocal empowerment coach for the past 15 yrs., gave a TEDx Talk called "Singing is Your Birthright," and is now officially walking the Hebrew priestess path, creating a life—professionally and personally—of ceremony and ritual.

Flip Frisch, daughter of Bernice Frisch, is a singer-songwriter and song leader, making music and memories for decades at Herzl Camp, Union for Reform Judaism Camp Kalsman, and campfires everywhere. She serves as Cantorial Soloist at Congregation Kol Ami in Portland, Oregon.

Register online www.hadassahmidwest.org/MSPInstallation by midnight, Thursday, January 5th.

You will receive confirmation immediately and the Zoom link the day before the event. If you wish to attend and don't have access to a computer, contact Carole Lebow at 612-716-1220 to make phone arrangements. Questions? Contact Carole Lebow or hadassahminneapolisstpaul@gmail.com.

To make a donation, send your check, payable to Hadassah, to Barbara Parks, 3645 Archer Lane, Plymouth, MN 55446. Include your name, preferred phone, and e-mail address.
